RESOLUTION REGARDING FEDERAL INTEREST IMPACTS FROM THE AMENDMENTS TO THE COMPREHENSIVE PLAN FOR THE NATIONAL CAPITAL: DISTRICT ELEMENTS
COMPREHENSIVE PLAN AMENDMENTS ACT OF 2006

April 5, 2007

WHEREAS, pursuant to the National Capital Planning Act of 1952, as amended (40 U.S.C. § 8721), (“Planning Act”), the National Capital Planning Commission (“Commission”) adopted a resolution on February 1, 2007 finding that newly enacted District Elements of the Comprehensive Plan for the National Capital would not have a negative impact on the interests or functions of the federal establishment in the National Capital, with exceptions; and,

WHEREAS, pursuant to § 8721 of the Planning Act, the Council of the District of Columbia has approved D.C. Act 17-124, containing the Comprehensive Plan response to National Capital Planning Commission (“Commission”) recommendations, and submitted such response to the Commission to determine whether the modifications have been made in accordance with the Commission’s findings;

BE IT RESOLVED that, pursuant to § 8721(c) of the Planning Act, the Commission finds that D.C. Act 17-124 will not have a negative impact on the interests or functions of the federal establishment in the National Capital.
